

Questions We Would Like Christians to Explain With Some Sensible Answers

1. If God is so anxious to “save” everybody from hell, why did he create hell in the first place?
2. If the devil is the root of all evil in this world and “the next,” why did God create the devil in the first place?
3. Did he make a mistake?
4. If he did make a mistake, why doesn't he correct it and just simply kill the devil? After all, he is all powerful, so it shouldn't be any problem. Or is he in cahoots with the devil? Furthermore, he didn't hesitate to drown all human beings (except one family) in the Great Flood, so why doesn't he eliminate the devil once and for all and get to the root of the problem?
5. Could the devil continue to exist and carry on his nefarious trade without the collaboration, cooperation, and assistance of God? Are God and the devil in cahoots?
6. How do you explain the fact that the bible tells us (in the Old Testament) over and over again that the Jews are God's chosen, and yet, the Jews do not believe in Christ or the New Testament and are therefore, ipso facto, doomed to go to hell. This has been going on for 200 years and eighty generations. How do you explain this?
7. So why would god have such a schizophrenic preference for the Jews and yet send them all to hell?
8. What is suppose to happen to all the billions of people—good, bad, and indifferent—who lived before the year A.D. 1 and therefore never heard of Christ? (According to the bible, there is only heaven or hell in the hereafter, and only those who believe in Christ can be saved from hell.)
9. what about the billions of people—blacks, Chinese,Hindus,Polynesians, etc., who live and die in the present age and never heard of Christ?
10. Can you think of a more sadistic, horrible, monstrous, diabolical idea than creating a huge, fiery lake, or pit of molten sulfur, and then torturing people for all eternity in such excruciating pain without the mercy of allowing death to end at all?
11. Could you LOVE a monster who would create such a horrible place of torture and create billions of creatures to put in it?
12. Couldn't God foresee what he was doing? Couldn't he have done it differently? Couldn't he stop it all even today and release all his victims? Why doesn't he do it?
13. If Christians really believe that getting to heaven is so wonderful, why do they so desperately cling to life and utilize every means of medical and scientific assistance to prolong life to the bitter end?
14. If God (and Christ) are so anxious to save (from hell) all the billions of people he himself created, why doesn't he make a personal appearance to this world, say every decade or so? This would certainly be more convincing than a lot of contradictory claims on the printed page. If he could hop back and forth between heaven and earth at the time of the Israelites and had time for such nonsense as wrestling with Jacob all night, why cant he, and why doesn't he, make a personal appearance to the much more numerous world of today?
15. Is there any more merit for believing in your set of spook (angels, witches, devils, holy ghost, etc.) than the Hindu believing that cows are holy, or the savages of Africa believing in witch doctors, evil spirits, etc.?
16. Have you ever seen any of the spooks in the sky you profess to believe in? Just what sky do they reside in? Over Australia, Africa, Boston, or where? How many millions of miles away are they?
17. If you have never seen them and you don't know where they are, how do you know they exist?
